10. [REDACTED] LIAISON Talked with both Audrey Hatry and Spencer Davis, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding the Committee's request for Agency declassification of Jim Angelton's testimony before the Church Committee. Davis agreed to provide me a copy of the transcript of Angleton's classified testimony, which the Agency does not have. Davis also said the Committee was considering rescinding this request and simply asking Angleton to talk with the newsman who asked the Committee for a declassified version of his testimony.

12. [ ] LIAISON I accompanied [ ] OGC, to a meeting with Denver Dickerson, Staff Director, and Angie Elmore, staff of the Joint Committee on Printing, to discuss CIA compliance with the Depository Library Program. It appears that a regulation issued by the Committee on 25 March 1977 will solve the Agency's problem with respect to providing documents for the program. It also was determined that CIA was not, contrary to previous information from the Committee, exempt from participation in the program.

15. [ ] LEGISLATION Called Mark Gitenstein, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to ask him when H.R. 6689, the State Department Authorization bill, which has a provision on receiving and giving gifts to foreign government officials would be considered. He said it was scheduled for Senate floor debate about 13 June.

16. [ ] LEGISLATION Talked to Tom Payne, on the House Government Operations Committee staff, regarding requests for comments the Committee had sent us on H.R. 4173 and H.R. 6195, bills which would reorganize the Intelligence Community. I told him we were preparing to send a letter deferring comment on these bills until after the PRM-11 process is complete. After checking with several of the senior staff people on the Committee, he phoned me back and said there would be no problem but they did want us to comment on the bills as soon as PRM-11 was finished.
